The Bangalore city municipality accordingly agreed to share $\frac{1}{3}$ of the cost. But when the District Board, Bangalore, stated that it would contribute in proportion to the no. of patients from rural parts treated in the hospital, the question of sharing the cost was placed before the council under the orders of the 3rd member and the proportion of contribution by Bangalore city municipality was fixed at $\frac{1}{2}$. Mr 7) The City Municipal Council still adheres to its opinion that it can contribute only $\frac{1}{3}$ of the cost subject to a maximum of Rs 60,000. After meeting expenditure of the E. D. The patients in the two City E.D. Hospitals are mostly composed of the Residents within the two City Municipal areas, though the no coming from the District area outside is not much. Still patients from the Cantonment area are also treated in them. It therefore seems to me that the Civil Boards ought to contribute towards the cost as a matter of principle. Evidently the Bolpur City Municipality resents the differentiation made between it & the Negapatam City Municipality in the matter of contribution but the reason for it is obvious. There is not a better financial condition than Negapatam. Though as a principle it would seem to be not quite free from objection.

(2) I think the qualification "subject to a maximum of Rs 10000 a year" should be removed. There is no reason why the Municipality should not bear one-half of the cost, whatever it is. Properly speaking the share to be borne by the general revenues should not be as large as one half if the Municipality is required to bear its share of the charges. If the taller Bd is to be excused from paying its share the State & the Municipality have to pay one half each & the taller can not expect to have its share reduced to less than half when strictly it should bear the whole cost considering the fact that the benefit of the Hospital is mostly enjoyed by its rate-payers.

Final Note by the Second Member of Council.

Subject:-

Contribution to be paid by the Bangalore City Municipality towards the cost of the Epidemic Diseases Hospital at Bangalore.

While sanctioning the transfer of the Epidemic Diseases Hospitals at Bangalore and Mysore from the control of the Municipalities to that of the Medical Department, Government directed in their order No.G.24949-52/Medl. 35-19-18 dated 24th June 1921 that the contribution to be paid by the Bangalore City Municipality be fixed at one-half and that by the Mysore City Municipality at one-third of the total cost. The Bangalore City Municipal Council protested against that order and requested that the contribution to be paid by them may be fixed at one-third of the cost as in the case of the Mysore Municipality. This request was negatived in No.L.1865/Ml.65-21-2 dated 26th September 1921 on the ground that there was no comparison between the resources of Bangalore and of Mysore which were very slender, that it was the duty of the Municipal Council under the Municipal Regulation to make proper arrangements for the control of epidemics etc, that the fixing of the contribution at one-half was itself a concession and that the District Board could not, as suggested, be called upon to contribute anything, as it was not their duty to maintain such hospitals in Municipal limits.

2. The President, Bangalore City Municipal Council, thereupon submitted the resolution of the Council agreeing to pay one-third of the cost of the Epidemic Diseases Hospital not exceeding a maximum of Rs.10,000 and requested a reconsideration of the Government Orders referred to. The Chief reasons urged in support of the request are-

(1) that the distinction made between the Mysore and the Bangalore City Municipalities in regard to the contribution is not justified;

(2) that the Municipality are unable to meet the contribution fixed, as the expenditure is showing a distinct tendency to increase after the transfer of the control of the hospital to the Medical Department; and

(3) that the District Board should also be called upon to contribute equally towards the cost, as cases of infections diseases from the suburbs of the City are treated in the hospital.

3. The First Member of Council was in favour of the proposal to make the District Board bear a portion of the cost.

4. The question was considered at a meeting of the Council, and the Council are of opinion that 'the contribution of the Bangalore City Municipality towards the cost of the Epidemic Diseases Hospital may be fixed at half the cost subject to a maximum of Rs.10,000 a year'.

5. The resolution of the Council having been sent to the Financial Secretary, he has stated that the qualification 'subject to a maximum of Rs.10,000 a year' should be removed, as strictly speaking the Municipality should bear the whole cost in view of the fact that the benefit of the hospital is mostly enjoyed by its rate-payers.

6. The limit of Rs.10,000 laid down in the Council Resolution does not throw a large burden upon the Government, as the cost of maintenance of the Hospital comes to Rs.20,028 a year. Since, however, the dietary charges will vary according to the frequency and duration of epidemics, I think it would be better if we make the present arrangement to last for a period of five years, so that the whole position may be reviewed again at the end of that period. This suggestion has been agreed to by the Dewan.

7. The resolution of the Council, with the time limit suggested above, may be graciously approved.

S I R,

B Sept-21 85-122 D

With reference to your letter No.L.1865/M1.65-21-2 dated 26-9-1921 stating that it is the duty of the Municipal Council to make arrangements for the control of the epidemics and treatment of persons suffering from infectious diseases and that as such the Council will agree to bear half of the cost of the Epidemic Diseases Hospital, I have the honour to submit herewith for orders of Government copy of the resolution of the Council at the meeting held on 9-1-1922 agreeing to pay 1/3 of the cost of the Epidemic Diseases Hospital not exceeding a maximum of Rs.10,000/-

2. The Chief reasons urged by the Council are that they cannot see the distinction made between the Mysore City Municipal Council and this in the matter of payment of contribution and that as the expenditure is showing a distinct tendency towards increase after the control of the Hospital was transferred to the Medical Department, they are unable to meet the increased contribution.

3. When the cost of maintainence of the Epidemic Diseases Hospitals at Bangalore and Mysore was revised, the City Municipal Council was not consulted in the matter but were asked to state if they were agreeable to meet 1/3 of the revised revised cost of the Epidemic Diseases Hospital in the City as in the case of Mysore City. The Council then agreed to bear the proportionate cost as proposed. In the Order of Government dated 24-6-1921 it has been now directed that the Bangalore City Municipality should pay a contribution of ½ of the total cost while the Mysore City is required to contribute only a third. It is also urged that as per Orders of Government, the charges of the several dispensaries in the City are equally apportioned between the City Municipal Council, District Board and the Government, each contributing a third. In this case also, it is the District Board that should be called upon to contribute equally towards the cost of Epidemic Diseases Hospital as cases of infectious diseases brought for treatment from the suburbs of the City outside the limit are treated in the Epidemic Diseases Hospital.

4. Under these circumstances, I request that Government will be pleased to reconsider the question and pass favourable orders accepting the proposal of the Council agreeing to contribute 1/3 of the total cost subject to a maximum of Rs. 10,000/-.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

President.
